

Ceasing super transfers to Eligible Rollover Funds

PDS Update issued: 1 May 2021

This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) Update is to be read in conjunction with the Grow Wrap Super and Pension Service (Service) Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) dated 1 February 2020 (PDS) and any other disclosure documents issued by OnePath Custodians Pty Limited (Trustee) in connection with the Service.

Why is this document being updated?

As a result of legislative changes to facilitate the closure of eligible rollover funds, superannuation providers can no longer transfer a member's account balance into an Eligible Rollover Fund (ERF) from 1 May 2021.

The changes also require ERFs to transfer amounts in 'low balance accounts', (less than $6,000) as at 1 June 2021, to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) before 1 July 2021, and the amounts of all remaining accounts, before 1 February 2022.

For Grow Wrap Super and Pension Service, the main changes from 1 May 2021 are:

- the Trustee will no longer transfer any benefits to the Australian Eligible Rollover Fund or any other ERF;
- where previously the Trustee may have transferred an amount to an ERF, the Trustee may now transfer the amount to the ATO; and
- the Trustee may also voluntarily transfer other amounts payable to you to the ATO if the Trustee reasonably believes that it is in your best interests.

What is changing in the PDS?

In the PDS listed above:

- Under the heading 'Changing advisers' on page 50, the following text is deleted:

"If you do not appoint a new adviser, at our discretion and on 30 days' notice, we may redeem your holdings at current market values, deduct any outstanding fees, charges and taxes, and roll your benefit over into an Eligible Rollover Fund (ERF) or close the account."

and replaced with:

- The heading and all information underneath the heading 'Eligible Rollover Fund (ERF)' on page 51, is deleted and replaced with the following:

ATO Voluntary Transfers

In accordance with superannuation legislation, where the Trustee reasonably believes it is in a member's, former member's or non-member spouse's best interests, the Trustee reserves the right to transfer the account balance payable to that person to the ATO.

This includes where your account balance is less than $1,500, and:

- we have not received a contribution from your (or received on your behalf) for two consecutive years, and
- one item of correspondence is returned to us as unclaimed mail from your last known address.

If your account is transferred to the ATO:

- you will cease to be a member of the Service
- costs, such as taxes may be deducted
- any insurance cover you had as part of the Service will cease.

- Under the heading 'Superannuation and family law' on page 56, the following text is deleted:

"The Trustee may create a separate interest in the superannuation fund for the non-member spouse (where an instruction has not been provided within 28 days), or transfer the non-member's entitlements to the Australian Eligible Rollover Fund (AERF), in line with the provisions of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993."

and replaced with:

The Trustee may create a separate interest in the superannuation fund for the non-member spouse (where an instruction has not been provided within 28 days), or transfer the non-member's spouse entitlements to the ATO, in line with the provisions of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993."

- Under the question 'What happens if I change my adviser or cease to have an adviser?' on page 73, the following text is deleted:

"At our discretion and on 30 days' notice, we may redeem your holdings at current market values, deduct any outstanding fees, charges and taxes, and roll your benefit over into an Eligible Rollover Fund (ERF) or close your account."

and replaced with:
